

The Alliance for Women in Media Celebrates 40th Annual Gracies

THE MOUTH, MAY 21ST, 2015 — The Alliance for Women in Media, presented the 40th Anniversary of The Gracies Awards to a packed house at The Beverly Hilton in Beverly Hills, CA. this week. Tracee Ellis Ross hosted the gala, which also celebrated the organization's 40 years of achievements. In honor of that milestone, The Gracies Awards were handed out on stage to honorees (which were previously announced on March 4, 2015) in recognition of their stellar accomplishments over the years.

Kristen Johnston said Gracie Allen was truly a legend, just by being herself, "If she were alive today [Gracie Allen], I think she'd be extremely proud of the women in this room; to know that we, too, stand in our own truths, do the work we love and, hopefully, will leave the industry, and the world, a little better off than when we found it." And, of course, radio was well-represented at this week's event. Among the guests at the Beverly Hilton included super agents, Eric Weiss (C) and Heather Cohen (RC), Cumulus' SVP/Programming and Content, Mike McVay (R) shown with Shelly Wade and Randi Golombeck (L).

The Gracies®
presented by the Alliance for Women in Media Foundation

